IPA Roman Maximo Corrons Inspiration & Motivation Award

Interamerican Pharmacists Association created this award to honor the memory of Roman M. Corrons who inspired and motivated countless pharmacists to participate actively and aspire to take on leadership roles in their profession. Roman was always there with guidance and support that motivated pharmacists and encouraged visionary leadership, approachable active membership and succession planning. This award recognizes the motivators among us who inspire others to continue to advance the profession.

Criteria:

- The recipient must be a Florida licensed pharmacist and a member of the FPA
- Candidate should motivate others to excel within the profession by encouraging them to be leaders.
- Candidate is not necessarily an association officer, but guides, supports and/or inspires others.

A brief description on the candidate's motivational/inspirational skills must accompany the nomination.
